

Michelle Mercier Clinic, CT, & Mini Event

Sept 12-14 @ Hunter Oaks Equestrian Center

Closing Date: September 5th

Michelle is a top-class horsewoman based out of Ocala, Florida, competing at the Intermediate and FEI 3 level of eventing with her partner, Shirsheen Fun For All (aka Gordie). Her education started with being an active member of the United States Pony Club in the North Central Prairie Region. Her knowledge grew when she moved to FL for a college degree in criminal justice and became a working student for eventing, show jumping, and dressage professionals. Michelle and her first FEI partner, Sir Malcolm, brought home a silver medal with their team at the 2010 young rider 1* (now 2*) championship, then continued up to the 3* level. In 2013, she imported her first Irish sport horse, Prince of Killealy. She successfully produced him up to the preliminary level, winning 4 USEA horse trials in a row and in the ribbons for many FEI 2 competitions. More recently, Michelle has been known for selecting and producing young horses up to the FEI levels. Besides riding her own horses, Michelle also coaches the University of Florida's eventing and dressage intercollegiate equestrian teams!
