

LESLEY GRANT-LAW JUNE 7 & 8 2024 @ HUNTER OAKS EQUESTRIAN CENTER

CLOSING DATE MAY 26

Lesley Grant-Law “LG” grew up in suburban Thornhill, Ontario, in a non-horsey family. Her introduction into the equestrian world was through a childhood friend who rode. She started taking lessons at Eglinton Equestrian Club and Leitchcroft Farm. As a teen, she worked for eventer and breeder Garry Roque, who helped her compete at the North American Young Riders’ Championships. She worked for some time at Kingridge Stables, Mill Creek Stables, and worked under Bruce Davidson Sr. while racking up a lengthy list of achievements in the early 2000s. Being a passionate scholar, Lesley attended York University, earning an honors degree in international relations and philosophy and a master's degree in human rights. Lesley has been short / long-listed for the Canadian team 8 times, a reserve for the Pan Ams twice, and would have represented Canada in Beijing were it not for a heartbreaking last-minute lameness with her horse Timber Spirit. She is half of the eventing world’s most popular power couples! Married to British riding phenom Leslie Law, together they run their successful business, Law Eventing in Ocala, Florida; all while raising their son Liam and running off to soccer practices. Her long-term vision is to “have a small handful of horses at the three-star to five-star level and to be successful with them. Other than that, my goals are to continue to have our business run as successfully as it is now for many years, and to raise a happy family.” -LG
